HPE APAC, India, and Japan Outcome-Based Solutions Summit 2023

Bangkok, Thailand. April 17-20, 2023.
Technical Certification Exams List

Available at the onsite HPE Testing Center

Exam offerings and policies

- As part of your registration package, you can take up to two proctored exams and one web-based exam, valid only for the exams listed in this exam guide.
- You can only take proctored exams (HPE0/HPE6/HPE7) at the onsite HPE Testing Center during its opening hours (see "Opening hours at HPE OBSS 2023" below).
- At the onsite HPE Testing Center, you can claim your HPE2 voucher. The voucher will provide you with an opportunity to take a web-based exam, valid until April 20, 2023. You can take the web-based exam (HPE2) from your electronic device, at any location.

Important note

Pearson VUE is the third-party test vendor that delivers HPE written certification exams. To facilitate a quick and smooth process of exam registration during HPE OBSS, you must take action before the event:

- For first-time test takers, you will need to request an HPE learner ID at https://partner.hpe.com and create a Pearson VUE account at http://www.pearsonvue.com/hpe/. This process could take up to five business days. For further instructions on how to create a new Pearson VUE account, please click here.

  Note: You might experience a delay in gaining an HPE Learner ID and accessing The Learning Center.

- Access your Pearson VUE account and verify that your personal information is up to date at http://www.pearsonvue.com/hpe/.

  Note: Your existing candidate profiles may not show user status (active/inactive). To look up your HPE Learner ID, please go to https://www.mylearninghpe.com/forms/idLookup.aspx. HPE team members, your learner ID is your employee ID.

- If you are experiencing any issues, please send an email to your local Certification and Partner support team:
  APJ: clsupport.ap@hpe.com; Korea: clsupport.kr@hpe.com; Japan: clsupport.jp@hpe.com.

Prepare for your exams

Make the most of this opportunity and come ready for your exams. You can order a select set of self-study guides from HPE Press to help you prepare for your exams. Make sure you order your study guides ahead of time, especially for hardcopy books that require a shipment. E-books are available immediately upon purchase. For HPE team members, you can download the self-study materials on the Certification & Learning internal website at https://cladmin.corp.hpecorp.net/EmployeeCertifications (VPN required).

Special HPE Press discount for HPE OBSS 2023 attendees

A 30% discount on HPE Press offerings and publications—study guides, practices tested, or self-directed remote labs—is available to all HPE OBSS attendees. Enter the following promo code upon checkout: OBSS2023. This promo runs from April 1 through April 30, 2023, and cannot be combined with other discounts (e.g., HPE team members' discount, or bundle discount).
